

Style Sheet Instructions to Contributors (effective September 2008).

1. Contributors should use the following e-mail address to submit manuscripts to the editor, Michael Nieswiadomy at miken@unt.edu. If you can not use the e-mail address, then please call the editor at 940-565-2244 for alternative instructions. All manuscripts should be prepared using Microsoft Word 2000 or higher for Windows 2000 or higher. For your more complex equations (i.e., more than mere subscripts and superscripts), please be sure to build your equations using Equation Editor within MS Word. The journal's web site is at <http://www.econ.unt.edu/jle>.
2. A submission fee of $50 must accompany manuscript (only $25 for an AAEFE member). Payment should be made to AAEFE by check. To join AAEFE or to pay the submission fee, make checks payable to AAEFE and mail to Dr. Peter Marks, Treasurer, AAEFE, 759 Tillinghast Road, East Greenwich, RI, 02818. Membership forms are found on the AAEFE webpage at <http://aaefe.org>.
3. Manuscripts which have been previously published should not be submitted. The submission letter shall explicitly state if a manuscript is under consideration for publication elsewhere.
4. An abstract is required: no more than 150 words.
5. The author shall only be identified on the first page. Also on the first page of the manuscript shall be manuscript's title, author's title and affiliation, complete mailing address, telephone number, fax number and email address. This first page shall not include any of the text of the manuscript as this first page will be detached from the manuscript prior to sending it out to referees. NOTE: On this first page, the author must declare any known or suspected potential conflicts of interests (e.g., author is a shareholder or an employee in a company with a financial interest in the publication) that might call into question the author's objectivity on the topic of the manuscript. On the second page, start with the title and abstract. Please use page numbers on all pages.
6. Manuscripts must be double-spaced typed.
7. Tables and figures should be created in Microsoft Word whenever possible. Microsoft Excel may be used for spreadsheets when necessary. Each table or figure should be placed on a separate page and numbered consecutively.
8. References should be cited within the text using the author-date system. The last name of the author followed by the year of publication should be enclosed in parentheses and usually placed at the end of the sentence before the punctuation with no comma between author name and year, i.e., (Ray 1991).
9. Bibliographic entries should be listed alphabetically at the end of the paper under the heading "References". Please see documentation guidelines below for detailed examples of proper form. (Note: Each entry must have a year of publication, and all journal references must include volume and page numbers.)
10. Unpublished papers should not be cited as references.
11. The use of endnotes/footnotes is discouraged. However, if information cannot be incorporated in the main text, endnotes should be placed at the end of the article, preceding the reference page. They should be numbered consecutively and typed single spaced with double spacing between entries. Please do not embed the endnotes/footnotes.
12. All matters of style should correspond to those prescribed by the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed.

Documentation Guidelines

The Journal of Legal Economics follows the author-date system of documentation set forth in the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th Edition. To assist our authors, we are providing examples of reference list (bibliography) entries for various types of sources. Please make certain that the reference list of the article you have submitted for publication conforms to this style.
